

INDIAN COUNCIL OF PHILOSOPHICAL RESEARCH
SPONSORED PERIODIC LECTURE
ORGANISED BY DEPT. OF PHILOSOPHY
UNIVERSITY B.T. & EVENING COLLEGE

A Seminar sponsored by Indian Council of Philosophical Research, New Delhi was organized by the Dept. Of Philosophy, University B. T & Evening College, Cooch Behar on 17th January 2023 at room number 16 of this college.

Emirates Professor Raghunath Ghosh, Dept of Philosophy, NBU and Prof. Nirmal Kumar Roy, Dept. Of Philosophy, NBU were attended the seminar as the Resource person.

The Programme was inaugurated by Dr. Subhash Chanda, Principal of this college and welcome address was delivered by Dr. Riki Chakraborty, convenor of this programme

Near about 200 students, teaching and non-teaching staffs of this college and teachers from different colleges were attended the seminar. The seminar topic dealt with the study of basic values embodied in Indian culture and their relevance to national reconstruction.

Emirates Prof. Raghunath Ghosh, Dept. of Philosophy, N.B.U in his lecture clearly mentioned that basic values in Indian culture are rooted in ancient philosophies, focusing on spiritual growth, ethical conduct and social harmony. The primary objective of these values is to create a morally enriched individual and a cohesive society.

After the end of the first lecture Prof. Nirmal Kumar Roy, Department of Philosophy, NBU have delivered his lecture on Niskama Karma in Bhagavad Gita. In his lecture he has mention that the meaning of Niskama Karma in Gita is the achievement of inner freedom and spiritual liberation by performing one's duty without attachment to the results. Prof. Roy clearly mention that the Gita teaches that, action is necessary but by detaching from the fruits of that action one finds peace and acts in alignment with divine will.

During the lively discussion questions, suggestions, opinions, from the participants made valuable contributions to the interesting topic.

The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Abir Kumar Das, State Aided College Teacher, Department of Philosophy, University B. T & Evening College.