Online B.Ed. Admission Instructions for Filling Academic Qualifications 2026-28

1) For Madhyamik (10) marks: put grand total for bengal board and for ICSE and CBSE put best 5 marks

2) For HS (10+2) marks: put best of 5 marks for all boards

3) If a student is eligible to opt History as a method subject in B.Ed. and studied history as honours / major subject at UG level, the student should follow the instructions given below:
In the Total Marks column, enter the total maximum marks allotted to the Major / Major Hons. subject (History) for all relevant years at UG level.
In the Marks Obtained column, enter the total marks actually obtained in the major / Hons. subject (History) for all relevant years at UG level.
The percentage will be calculated based on the total maximum marks and marks obtained in the major subject (History) only.
Example:
If History carries a total of 500 marks over all relevant years and the student obtains 425 marks, the percentage will be calculated as follows:

Percentage =(425÷500)×100=85%

4) If a student is eligible to opt for History as a method subject in B.Ed. and has studied History as a Pass/General/Minor subject at the UG level, the student should follow the instructions given below:
Select qualification at UG level as Pass/General graduate.
In the Total Marks column, enter the total maximum marks allotted for all subjects for all relevant years at UG level.
In the Marks Obtained column, enter the total marks actually obtained in all subjects for all relevant years at UG level.
The percentage will be calculated based on the total maximum marks and the total marks obtained in all subjects.
Example:
If the total allotted marks are 1,650 and the marks obtained are 1,200:

Percentage =(1200÷1650)×100=72.73%
